SECTION 2 - SUPPORTING LETTER AND TRANSCRIPT

A brief letter should be submitted with the application. The letter should be no more than two pages and should describe the applicant's planned field of study and long-term goals. The applicant's letter should explain:

- the hardship and/or financial need that has given rise to his/her application (e.g. sources of income, number of dependents, cost of program and other considerations);
- any other sources of financial assistance (e.g. scholarships, student loans) that the applicant will be receiving to assist in meeting the cost of the planned studies;
- any part-time or full-time jobs that the applicant has had; and
- any community service work that the applicant has performed.

An original copy of the applicant's Saskatchewan Education transcript must accompany the application to provide proof of academic achievements.

If a transcript cannot be obtained because the applicant has not attended school in Saskatchewan, this should be clearly stated, and any other available support for the applicant's academic achievements should be attached.
